

SOCIAL EMOTIONAL LEARNING IN ACTION

A SYMPOSIUM FOR PRACTITIONERS

WHO

Open to all who work with school-age children and youth: K-12 teachers, counselors, after-school and youth development professionals, and more.

WHAT

An interactive professional development experience to enhance your ability to build social and emotional strengths in yourself and your students across differences of race and culture.

WHEN

Friday, August 18, 2017

8:30-9:00 a.m. Registration

9:00 a.m.-4:30 p.m. Symposium

4:30-6:00 p.m. Happy Hour hosted by The Creative Advantage

WHERE

HIGHLINE
COLLEGE

2400 S. 240th St., Des Moines, WA 98198

Youth Development Executives of King County
Working together to advance the youth development field

WA State K-12 SEL Standards: Self-awareness Self-management Self-Efficacy Social Awareness Social Management Social Engagement

FEATURED TOPICS

- Trauma Informed & Restorative Practices • Culturally Responsive & Relevant Resources • Developing Specific SEL Skills in Children & Youth • Toys, Tools, & Tangibles • SEL Starts With Us: Building Positive Staff Communities

TICKETS

RSVP at tinyurl.com/SELSymp2017
Free
Registration required
Washington State clock hours and STARS credits available

EXPAND YOUR LEARNING

Check out The Creative Advantage Summer Institute on August 17!
RSVP at tinyurl.com/creative2017

CONTACT

Anne Arias
aarias@ydekc.org
206-336-6910

The  ROAD MAP PROJECT