

WHOLE CHILD, WHOLE DAY:

A Social & Emotional Learning Symposium

WHAT

An interactive professional development symposium to strengthen your capacity to create equity based learning environments that support the whole child across the whole day, with a focus on shifting adult practices and systems to better serve youth of color in the Road Map region

WHO

Practitioners and leaders within organizations and systems working in the education and youth development sectors to eliminate opportunity gaps for children aged 5-young adult

WHEN

Friday, August 9, 2019

8:30am - 9:00am Registration

9:00am - 4:30pm Symposium

4:30pm - 5:30pm Happy Hour

WHERE

HIGHLINE COLLEGE

2400 240th St.

Des Moines, WA 98198

FEATURED TOPICS

- Identity Development to Celebrate the Whole Child
- Strengthening Adult Mindsets and SEL Skills
- Trauma Informed & Healing Practices
- Centering Youth & Family Leadership
- Teaching SEL with Cultural Relevance

TICKETS

Registration Required. RSVP at tinyurl.com/WCWDsym2019

$50 General Admission, Pay What You Can, and Scholarship Admission,
STARS Credits available!

CONTACT

Anne Arias

aarias@ydekc.org

ydekc.org/WCWDsym2019

BROUGHT TO YOU BY

YDEKC
Youth Development Executives of King County

Road Map
Project

Supported by CCER

