

PARTNERSHIPS REFLECTION WORKSHEET

Reflect on the various partnerships you have had throughout your career, and those you are a part of now. All partnerships are unique and different- various factors influence these partnerships who the partners are, the resources available, and time line. The Partnership Types list is one framework to spark discussion on the type of partnerships you have engaged in or plan to. (Adapted from YDEKC's Partnership Toolkit- Partnership Identification Checklist)

Partnership Types	Group Reflection Questions
Cooperative: Partners operate autonomously from the school. Program goals are primarily established by the partner agency, though they may share one or more goals with the school.	1. Think about the various partnerships you are a part of. Which of these partnerships types resonate with you? Why or why not? 2. What does it take to build the kind of partnership you want?
Collaborative: The partner shares goals with the school, and communicates about progress on a semi-regular basis. The school and the partner organization maintain ultimate decision-making authority over their own activities.
Integrated: The partner plays a major role in site planning processes, and shares data, resources, and decision-making authority with the school.
None of the above: (please describe)

Additional Observations: