

Job Description

YDEKC Fundraising and Communications Manager

Overview:

Youth Development Executives of King County (YDEKC) connects, strengthens and amplifies the leaders of youth serving organizations so that all Black, Indigenous and youth of color thrive. YDEKC is a diverse coalition of youth-serving community based and nonprofit organizations across King County. With a focus on equity, our members embrace a youth development approach to support young people to reach the future they envision. Our members partner with schools, communities, and families, to ensure every young person has what they need to learn, grow, and thrive. YDEKC strives to center antiracist policies and practices in our work to ensure that leaders at every organizational level have opportunities to strengthen their skills and peer networks to advance along their own pathway. We also work to strengthen the youth development field through advocacy and awareness raising of the critical work that our sector does to build the ecosystem of supports young people need to thrive. See www.ydekc.org to learn more about us.

Location:

YDEKC is currently a fully remote organization through July 2021. Upon ability to renew in person activities, YDEKC staff will be able to continue to work regularly from home, with an option to have shared desk space within our fiscal sponsor, School's Out Washington's office at 801 23rd Avenue S., Seattle, Washington. Staff meetings and programming will eventually move to a hybrid of online (mostly Zoom currently) and live meetings at various locations throughout King County.

Position Summary: The Fundraising and Communications Manager is a new position that will build on YDEKC's 10 years of supporting the youth development field, by managing YDEKC's communications and fundraising activities. Communications responsibilities will include supporting online communications including newsletters, social media, and website and occasional print pieces. Fundraising responsibilities will include staffing our fund development committee, building an individual donor program, supporting annual membership pledge drive, and grant writing.

Reports to: YDEKC Executive Director, Jessica Werner

Responsibilities:

Communications

- Build and implement communication plans and strategies that will broaden member engagement and amplify YDEKC member stories to expand reach and understanding of youth development programs;
- Write, produce, and curate compelling content for the website, social media, press releases, publications, and other communications;
- Develop YDEKC's storytelling style to broaden reach and understanding of the breadth and diversity of the youth development sector, and amplify the voices of YDEKC members;
- Manage and oversee maintenance and improvements of YDEKC's Wordpress website;
- Solicit content, draft, and produce monthly YDEKC e-newsletter;
- Oversee implementation of and adherence to visual and written style guidelines.

Fundraising & Donor Stewardship

- Support the Executive Director and the Fund Development Committee in establishing and implementing a comprehensive fund development plan to advance YDEKC's mission;
- Cultivate, maintain, and grow individual donor engagement. Ensure robust and timely donor appreciation;

- With Executive Director, identify 10-15 major donor prospects and develop individual cultivation and solicitation strategies;
- Collaborate with Database and Administrative Assistant to manage donor database, including entering, acknowledging, and recording all donations and donor information (donor stewardship);
